Spanish War vets, whether soldiers or sailors, have been invited to attend a preparedness parade to be held in Burlington July 4. The men will assemble in the armory of a company, V. N. G., at ten o'clock in the morning or as soon after that as arrangements for the permit and lunch at G. A. R. hall after the parade. The parade will continue home as many as possible can go down.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Mary Costello June 22 in honor of her approaching marriage to William Glips of Essex Junction, at the home of Miss Theresa Zeno, 19 George street, by the employees of the Telephone company. There was music and dancing, and refreshments were served. Miss Costello received many beautiful gifts of cut glass and silver.

Mrs. Mary H. Isham, who observed the 50th anniversary of her birth on Saturday, was entertained at the home of her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isham of Williams street. During the afternoon and evening many of Mrs. Isham's relatives and a few friends called to offer their congratulations, and she received, also, many tokens of remembrance.

The work at the telephone office incident to the transfer of the troops from Camp Governor Gates fell heavily upon the telephone operators Monday day. The chief operator stated that probably never before in the history of the exchange was there so many calls to handle in a single day. The switchboard was a blaze of light continuously and every available employee who could operate was pressed into service.

Gable of Stratford, Conn.

Mrs. William L. Bull, 86, of Whitford, Pa., with her son, George G. Chandler, Yale, 42, were commencement guests of Mrs. and Mrs. Daniel L. Cady. Her many friends will remember Mrs. Bull as Miss Jean Alcott Christie, who carried away a watchkey from the University of Vermont upon her graduation, and whose other high scholastic honors since that time are the pride of her famous class. Mrs. Bull and Mr. Chandler came to Burlington to attend the thirtieth anniversary of 86 enroute to the Adirondacks and northern New York.

LOSS OF APPETITE

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality which is serious. It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist to-day. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not simply a spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best spring medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need. (Adv.)

The marriage of Sergeant Charles H. Caswell of Essex Junction, a member of the First Regiment, V. N. G., and Miss Kathryn M. Gordon of Essex Junction took place Monday at the First Church parsonage at 6:30 o'clock. The Rev. C. A. Adams performing the ceremony. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Caswell, the brother of the groom and his wife, and Mrs. Walter Machia. The marriage had been planned for a date in the near future, but the sudden orders of the V. N. G. to entrain immediately decided Mr. Caswell and his bride to have the ceremony performed at once.

Frank H. McCale of Malletts Bay, who was arrested about two weeks ago on the charge of having made an assault on two men with a dangerous weapon, pleaded guilty to the charge in city court Friday and was fined ten dollars and costs. The sentence as to fine was suspended and he paid the costs. The case grew out of an attempt on the part of Mr. McCale to order two Burlington men who were fishing in the vicinity of his farm from the premises. They refused to leave and Mr. McCale was charged with having threatened them with a gun, which he shot into the air.

A reception was tendered last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Cady at their residence on Main street, to the members of the class of 1886, their families and friends. President and Mrs. Beaton, Professor George H. Perkins, Professor and Mrs. Samuel E. Emerson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts were also included in the invitations as personal friends of many members of the "famous class." Mrs. Cady received, assisted by her guest, Mrs. William L. Bull, 86, upon whom an honorary degree was conferred yesterday by the university. The house was decorated with flowers and the season in profusion, and the reception proved to be one of the pleasant occasions of the thirtieth anniversary of the class of 1886, of which President Benton is a member by adoption. Upwards of fifty were in attendance.

At the beautiful home of Mrs. Edward Wells on Summit street last evening an informal reception was given for the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Metcalf of Winchester, Mass., who with their daughter, have been the guests of Mrs. Wells for a few days while on their way to their summer camp at South Hero. Mr. Metcalf was for 10 years the beloved pastor of the Unitarian church in the city and Mrs. Metcalf was held in affectionate regard by all the members of the congregation. Mrs. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf received the guests, most of whom were former parishioners of Mr. Metcalf. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Charles Wells and Mrs. W. C. Isham presiding at the table in the dining room. Mrs. Metcalf and daughter will go to-day to South Hero, but Mr. Metcalf has been summoned to Winchester by a death and will return there before going to his camp.

Thomas Ryan, overseer of the poor at South Burlington, suffered a compound fracture of his right leg Saturday afternoon, when the horse which he was driving home from work kicked him. The accident happened just as Mr. Ryan had pulled the horse down after it had attempted to run away. The spirited animal became frightened at the noise of an exhaust of an automobile, when near the corner of Russell and South Union streets. It bolted down Union street, but Mr. Ryan stuck to the seat and had succeeded in controlling the horse, when he turned up Main street. The wagon was a light spring one, with no dash, and the animal, while kicking, kicked up on to the seat upon which Mr. Ryan had his right foot. Mr. Ryan stayed upon the seat of the wagon and held the horse until the arrival of the police ambulance in which he was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital.

WILL MOTHER CAVALRY

Mrs. L. Emma Batchelder of Springfield, Mass., Accepts.

Major Batchelder Recruiting Vermont Cavalry Members at Plattsburgh— Regiment to Be Officered by Distinguished Army Men.

Mrs. L. Emma Batchelder of Springfield, Mass., mother of Major Wallace Batchelder, commander of the cavalry camp at Fort Ethan Allen, sent the following response last evening to the telegram of her son, notifying her that she had been unanimously elected "The Mother of the First Vermont Cavalry" and suggesting that if she felt the need of help in mothering the command, she should organize "the mothers of the First Vermont Cavalry."

Springfield, Vt., June 27, 1916. Major Wallace Batchelder, Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. I heartily approve the plan and appreciate the honor. Need light on organization and membership. Write me, please.

MOTHER. Major Batchelder went yesterday to Plattsburgh, N. Y., where he will attempt to interest the men at the military camp there in the First Vermont Cavalry. If a regiment is organized, with the First Squadron which is already encamped at Camp Governor Gates as a nucleus, none but regular army officers who have seen recent foreign service will be placed in command of the troops. The colonel of the regiment will be Major Frank Tompkins, 12th U. S. cavalry, who handled the flight at Parral, Mexico, in March and there received a slight chest wound. The lieutenant-colonel will probably be Captain Fred T. Austin, 2nd Field Artillery, U. S. A., now stationed at Manila, who has had years of foreign service. One of the majors will be Captain George M. Russell, U. S. cavalry, a West Point graduate who is now one of the instructors at West Point.

WEDDED AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

A. J. Moniere and Miss Addie Zeno Married Yesterday Morning.

Miss Addie Mary Zeno of George street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeno, and Alfred J. Moniere, son of Mr. and N. Moniere of Shelburne Falls, were married at 7:30 yesterday morning in St. Joseph's church by the Rev. Father Lacouture, the Rev. Mr. Clarence being in the sanctuary. The bride was prettily dressed in white crepe de chine trimmed with white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Theresa E. Zeno as bridesmaid, who wore blue crepe de chine and a white and blue brooch and carried pink bouquets. Lawrence Moniere, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and nearly all the family followed to the home of the bride. The couple left immediately afterward by train on a trip the destination of which is being kept secret.

Many fine wedding gifts were received from friends, including cut glass, silver, linen and more substantial presents. Mr. Moniere is employed in the Armour & Co's in town, and his bride has a career at the Combination cash store. They will make their home at 61 George street.

BRIGHTON MARKET.

Heavy cattle were distinctly easier at Brighton stock yard Tuesday morning, with prices a half cent or more lower than a week ago. Hogs were firmer and higher, other quotations being unchanged. At Brighton the arrivals for the day were seven cars from the Boston & Albany railroad and 18 cars from the Boston & Maine. Arrivals at Waterville, the day before, were 16 cars, making the total for the week 104 cars, compared with 81 cars for the previous week and 63 cars two weeks ago. Heavy beef cattle declined still further, and some choice cattle sold at 9 1/2 cents, this being about the top price for the day. The range for the best cattle was 8 to 9 1/2 cents, with good cattle at 8 to 8 1/2 cents and light cattle at 7 to 7 1/2 cents.

Some fancy beef cows and heifers sold well up to 8 cents, the range for tops being 7 to 8 cents, with good cows at 5 to 6 cents, with ordinary cows at 4 to 5 cents and canners at 3 1/2 to 4 cents. Heavy bulls sold at 5 1/2 to 7 1/2 cents, the range for tops being 4 to 5 1/2 cents, with good bulls at 4 to 5 1/2 cents, and ordinary bulls and bolognas at 3 to 4 cents.

Calves were in good supply, but the demand holds up well and prices are practically unchanged at 10 to 11 cents, for best bunch lots and some small fancy lots as high as 12 1/2 cents. Fair lots sold at 8 to 9 cents and growers and drinkers at 6 to 7 1/2 cents. Hogs were strong and higher, owing to a lighter run, and firmer prices in the West. Sales were made at Brighton this morning at 10 to 10 1/2 cents for best lots and 9 1/2 to 10 cents for rough lots.

Only about a half dozen sheep and lambs were in the yards Tuesday morning, and prices were entirely nominal. Choice lambs would bring up to 8 cents if they were available.

Demand for milk cows is mainly for the better grades, and with the exception of an occasional sale to territory North and West of Boston, comes from Rhode Island and Southern Massachusetts. Fancy milkers are selling $10 to $100, and sometimes more, with good milkers at $5 to $7. Poorer stock sells slowly, and it is often a question with the drovers, whether to sell for beef or for milkers. Such stock brings from $5 down.

Packers report a moderate increase in the local run of hogs, the total kill reported for the week by Boston packers being 16,000 hogs, against 14,000 for the preceding week and 25,000 for the same week last year. Since January 1, 1916, the total kill by Boston packers has been 619,000 hogs, against 699,000 hogs for the same period in 1915.

Steamer sailings have the export of pork products have materially fallen off, the total value reported for the week by Boston packers being $5,000, against $50,000 for the preceding week and $25,000 for the same week last year. Since January 1, 1916, the total exports by Boston packers have been valued at $2,447,000, against $3,444,000 for the same period in 1915.

Dressed hogs have been advanced a quarter cent during the week, the packers now quoting 12 1/2 to 13 1/2 cents, against 12 1/2 to 13 1/2 cents for the past three weeks.

RECRUITS FLOCK TO CAMP

Troops Remaining at Mobilization Center Have Busy Day.

Major Wallace Batchelder Leaves for Plattsburgh to Meet Recruits— Cavalry Squadron May Leave for Border This Week.

Camp Governor Gates at the State reservation, which has been the mobilization center of the organized militia of Vermont, presented a greatly changed appearance yesterday, after the departure of the First Regiment of Infantry on Tuesday afternoon. The mobilized village, which had housed the 1,200 men who comprised all the Vermont troops, has shrunk to the much smaller size required to shelter the 300 men comprising the cavalry and the recruiting and equipping camps. The camp was very busy, however, as there remained a great deal of work to be attended to after the departure of the troops, and to prepare for the large numbers of recruits who are expected daily. Major Batchelder, who commands the cavalry camp, left yesterday afternoon for Plattsburgh, N. Y., where he will meet a number of members of the summer camp who wish to join the First Squadron of the First Cavalry. Major Batchelder expects to return the latter part of the week. About ninety men who failed to pass the final physical examination were discharged yesterday.

Captain R. S. Hyland of Rutland, who commands the recruiting and equipping camp for the First Regiment of Infantry, received yesterday a shipment of 1,300 rifles and a large number of army blankets and other equipment. His command comprises 4 officers and 51 enlisted men of the First Regiment of Infantry, who were left at the camp for various reasons, and 72 applicants for enlistment in the regiment, who will undergo their physical examination to-day. The recruiting offices at the home stations of infantry companies have been closed and all would-be guardsmen must apply at Camp Governor Gates. It is extremely uncertain as to when the infantry recruits will be ordered to join the regiment.

The cavalry camp, at which are stationed the First Squadron of the First Cavalry, comprises 15 officers and 150 enlisted men, of whom about 30 are recruits. The war strength of the squadron is 165 men and as this number is expected to be reached within a few days, the cavalry may leave for the border Friday or Saturday. However, if recruits appear in sufficient numbers to make the project a feasible one, an entire regiment of cavalry may be recruited.

The regimental band is also being recruited at the camp and will proceed to the destination of the regiment as soon as it has attained its full strength of 28 men. There are now 15 men in this organization, although others are needed in all sections. All applicants should apply to Chief Musician Dunham. Members of this organization not only have their instruments furnished by the government, but receive one dollar a month for their organization, although others are needed in all sections. All applicants should apply to Chief Musician Dunham. OBITUARY

Sister Mary McLeod.

The funeral of Sister Mary McLeod, who died at the Fanny Allen hospital Monday morning, was held in the chapel of the hospital at nine o'clock yesterday morning. The Rev. J. M. Hermet, S. S. E., of St. Michael's College was the celebrant of the solemn requiem mass, the Rev. Henry McLeod, brother of the deceased, was deacon and a piano. Tents similar to this one have been erected at the camp to-day. The tent will contain, besides writing tables and a good supply of stationery, games, reading matter, a victrola and a piano. Tents similar to this one have proved very successful as recreation centers for the men at several of the summer encampments.

John J. Kennedy, a resident of the city for the past 65 years and a prominent member of St. Mary's cathedral, died at his home at 170 Loomis street, Monday morning, June 26, at the age of 84. He was born in Limerick county, Ireland, and was 79 years old. At 14 years of age he came to Burlington and had lived here since that time. Death took place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Lawrence, of 18 Beach street.

Mr. Kennedy lived in the south part of the city during most of his residence in town. In 1883 he married Miss Mary Donahue, who died fourteen years ago. The surviving children are two sons, Cornelius E. Kennedy of New York and Joseph J. Kennedy of Barre; and three daughters, Mrs. Catherine Gleason and Mrs. Lawrence of Burlington, and Miss Helen Kennedy of New York. A twin brother, Patrick H. Kennedy, a brother, Dennis, and a sister, Mrs. James Madigan, all of Burlington, also survive.

Only Thursday Mr. Kennedy took a walk down town, and Friday morning he also came downtown. The funeral was held at St. Mary's cathedral Monday morning, with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. Mary E. Latulippe. Neighbors of Mrs. Mary E. Latulippe of St. Louis street were shocked Monday afternoon to hear of her death at 3:30 o'clock of heart trouble. The end came within 15 minutes after the attack. Mrs. Latulippe leaves a widower, Stephen Latulippe, a son, Eugene, four daughters, Louisa, Mrs. Charles Merriek, Mrs. Albert Gravel and Mrs. George W. Maynard, all of Burlington, except Mrs. Merriek, who lives in East Georgia. A sister, Mrs. Felix Goulet, and 11 grandchildren, also survive. Mrs. Cannon was a good wife, a loyal friend and popular with her associates in church and neighborhood. The funeral was held at St. Mary's cathedral Monday morning with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The Old Bee Hive

June 29

The Old Bee Hive

Summer Clearance

Sale News

It will tell of a sale such as you have learned to expect from this store.

Of merchandise which we never hesitate to stand back of.

Of full stocks of real good merchandise from the cheapest that is worth having to the very finest things.

It will tell of savings that are real and worth while; in fact, price advantages that are most extraordinary.

The sale begins Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. Don't miss it.

The Most Notable Feature

Will be the

Sale of Table Linens, Towels, Sheets, Pillow Cases and Cottons

Twice a year for thirty-two years The Old Bee Hive has had its famous sales of Linens and Beddings.

To-day these sales are looked forward to by thrifty housekeepers with the same interest as did their parents when these sales first began.

It is an event that enables housekeepers to buy better things, live more comfortably and practice economy in its true sense.

It is not a sale in which the only claim to attention is that it is cheap. The good, lasting quality of everything is more in evidence and price comes after, and invariably that price is the lowest of any sale prices you will find in town.

grandchildren. For many years Mr. Evans had been a member of the Methodist Church. The funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock and burial was in the family lot in Lake View cemetery beside the body of his son. The Rev. C. V. Grismer officiated.
